G.O.Ms.No.2452. Dated 18th October 1948

Read the following:--

G.O.Ms.No.528 Finance, dated 12th July1948
From the Board of Revenue, Ref.N.No.3825/47-2. dated 9th February 1948.

Order:

In G.O.Ms.No.528 Finance, dated the 12th July 1947 the Government accepted the proposal of the Board of Revenue that the ~~turnover~~ temporary service on fixed rates of pay in the Survey and Land Recon department and the officiating service in the Central Survey Office, Ranges and Collector's Offices of Junior Draftsmen and computers might be counted for purposes of advance increments under rule ~~9(b)~~ 9(c) of the Madras Revised Scales of Pay rules, 1947. The Board has pointed out in its reference cited, that the concession allowed in the order will not benefit a large number of permanent draftsmen and computers in the Central Survey Office and the draftsmen in the Ranges who held temporary and officiating posts and were retrenched and subsequently re-employed. It has, therefore, recommended that the breaks, if any, in the officiating or temporary service of junior draftsmen and computers in the Survey Department may be ignored and that the entire period of the tempoarry service on fixed grades of pay may be taken into account for purpose of granting advance increments under rule 9(c) of the Madras Revised scale of Pay rules. The Government accept the recommendations in the special circumstances reported.

2. This order will not have the effect of allowing any arrears of pay prior to the date of this order.

C.S. Ramachandran,
Under Secretary to Government.

From the Board of Revenue, N. 3825/47-2, dated 9-2-48
G.O.Ms.No.2452 Revenue, dated 18th October 1948.

Reference:

In its Reference read above, the Board recommended that the orders in the G.O. first quoted x being a concession allowed to junior Draftsmen and computers on fixed rates of pay, who had previously held either temporary or officiating posts, no distinction need be made between breaks in temporary or officiating service, and that the entire service in either category - temporary or officiating (excluding the breaks and the period of leave) might be allowed to count for purposes of advance increments. In their order second read above, though the Government state that they accept the recommendation in the special circumstances reported, there is no specific mention that "officiating service" is to count for purposes of advance increment.

2. It is further submitted that the Government have not replied to the presumption of the Board expressed in para 5 of its letter quoted above.

3. In the circumstances, the Board requests the orders of Government on these points.

MEMORANDUM No.63723-G/48-2, dated the 13th December 1948.

PUBLIC SERVICES - The Madras Survey and Subordinate Service - Junior Draftsmen and computors - Fixation of pay in the revised scales of pay - Counting of non-officiating service in respect of men without substantive appointment - Further clarification.

From the Board of Revenue, Ref.No.N-3825/47-5, dated 6-11-1948.

The Board of Revenue is informed that the intention of G.O.2452, Revenue, dated the 18th October 1948 is that the entire period of temporary and non-continuous officiating service of the Junior Draftsmen and computors in the Survey Department should be taken into account for purposes of granting advance increments under rule 9(c) of the Madras Revised Scale of pay rules. The Board is also informed that the presumption expressed by it in the last para of its Reference No.N.3825/47-2, dated the 9th February 1948 is correct.
